OCEANA HIGH SCHOOL

OCEANA, WEST VIRGINIA

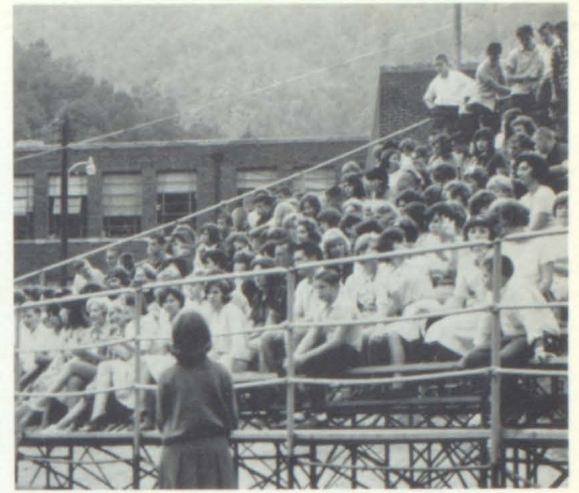

Foreword

For four short years, Oceana High is our special world, a world of youth, of work and play, where we pursue our paths—separate yet together—toward the same goal—education.

The yearbook staff presents a glimpse of this world as it was in 1965-66.

BENNY GLEN PHILPOT

In Memoriam

The school year was saddened by the death of Benny Glen Philpot, a member of the senior class, who was injured in a highway accident March 18, and died the following morning.

Popular with his classmates and teachers, Glen was a member of the Math and Pep Clubs. As a freshman, he was a member of the junior high track team. This year he was captain of an intramural basketball team, having played in the league two years.

His friendliness and courtesy won a special place for him in the hearts of his classmates and all who knew him.

Mr. Cook Becomes County Supervisor

After eight years as principal, Mr. Ronald L. Cook left Oceana High School in January to assume new duties as county supervising specialist in the field of social studies.

Mr. Cook, who was appointed principal in 1958, joined the Oceana faculty in 1949.

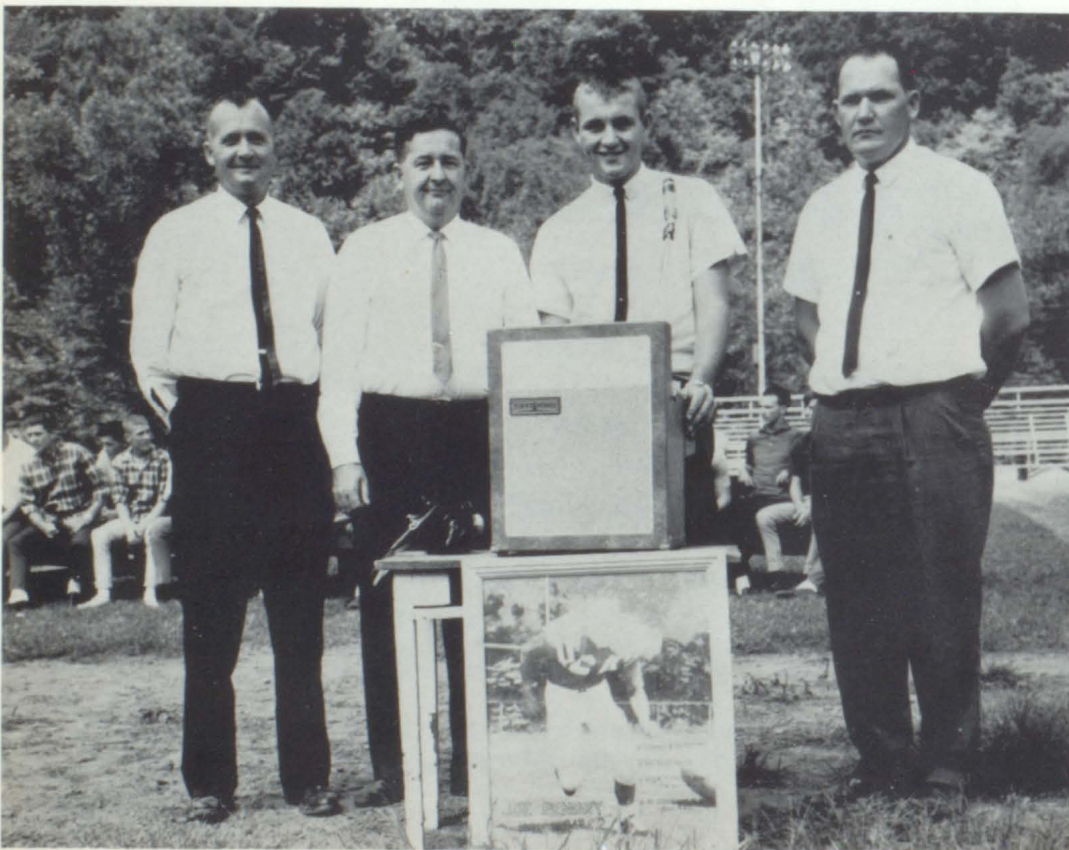

During his tenure, enrollment grew from 625 to 708 and the teaching staff from 23 to 29. His major goal was improvement of the curriculum and his success is evidenced in the many new courses which have been added in the fields of science, mathematics, languages and commerce.

Mr. Cook was interested in every phase of school activity and gave his utmost effort to every worthwhile endeavor.

MR. COOK left Oceana High for a new position as supervisor.

Year Brings Change

MR. COOK, always interested in sports, joins Dr. E. G. Shannon, Joe Pendry and Coach John Beckelheimer at the first pep meeting of the year. Pendry, former Oceana athlete who now plays football at West Virginia University, was honored at the rally.

Mr. Short Appointed Oceana High Principal

Mr. Vernon Short, assistant principal for two years and counselor for three years, succeeded Mr. Ronald L. Cook as principal.

Mr. Short joined the faculty in 1959 as social studies teacher. He received the B.S. degree at Concord College and completed the M.A. degree at Marshall University.

As counselor, Mr. Short came to know most students well and has firsthand knowledge of their problems and aspirations.

MR. VERNON SHORT became principal of Oceana High in January.

in School Administration

LEAVING THE office after eight years, Mr. Cook wishes the new principal much success.

AS GUIDANCE counselor, Mr. Short advises Kerry Hill.

COUNSELOR Billy Harless advises Geneva Lusk of the senior class as to possibilities for employment after graduation.

School Secretary Has Many Duties

Mrs. Sherry Brown, Oceana High's efficient secretary, has a full day meeting the usual and unusual tasks which arise in a school with 700 students.

Reports, lists, letters, transcripts, and telephone messages fill her schedule along with the many extra assignments each day brings.

In addition to keeping the office running smoothly, Mrs. Brown supervises students who are learning office procedure through practice.

MRS. JEANETTE TOLER and Mr. B. L. Morgan confer on an attendance problem at the beginning of the school day.

Harless Appointed Guidance Counselor

Mr. Billy Harless, teacher at Oceana High for 13 years, was appointed guidance director in January, replacing Mr. Vernon Short who was named principal.

Mr. Harless counseled college-bound seniors and worked with Youth Corps participants both in and out of school. He also visited grade schools of the area to advise students who will enter Oceana High in the fall.

Administering testing programs, and assisting students with school and personal problems are among his many duties.

WRITING A CHECK, Mrs. Sherry Brown pays a school bill. Bookkeeping is part of her day's routine which includes many duties.

Directors Encourage Faithful Attendance

Keeping tab on school attendance is the assignment of Mrs. Jeanette Toler, girls' attendance director, and Mr. B. L. Morgan, boys' director. They are found in their offices before school and during the first and fourth periods.

Checking excuses, issuing class admission slips, and keeping school attendance high are their special duties.

HIGHLIGHTS

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS set a victory mood and capture third prize with this float. Football player is Sue Hutson.

DIRECTOR Thomas Goheen, Jr., steps out smartly at the head of the Indian Marching Band to lead the Homecoming Parade.

Homecoming Means Floats,

WHAT'S an Oceana homecoming without Indians? These two are freshman leaders Jimmy Sizemore and Wanda Hamilton.

JUNIORS won first prize with this attractive float.

Parade Builds Victory Spirit

Homecoming means a parade and this year's was the best ever with everyone out to build victory spirit for the Indians.

Floats, band and marchers were ready as threatening skies cleared just in time for the afternoon parade. The colorful floats passing the judges' stand represented hours of work by classes and clubs.

Indian spirit is always at its best at Homecoming when old grads join grads-to-be in the festivities which make this a highlight of the year.

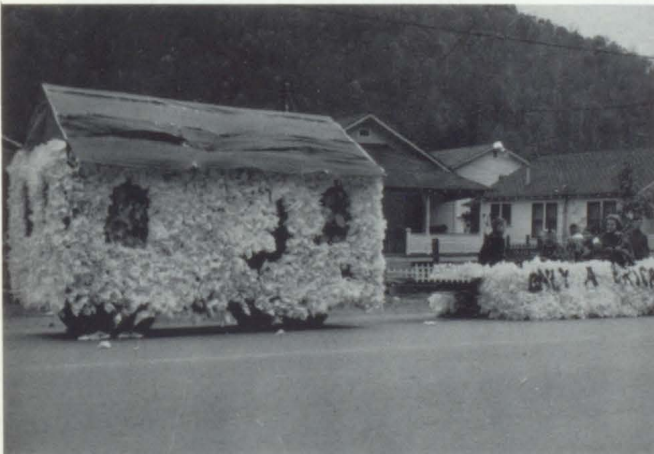

Anticipation is over and Homecoming is here when the band steps out to lead the long-awaited parade.

HOMECOMING beauties ride on float provided by senior class. Queen Pat Jones stands with little crown bearer Diane Lubonia. Happy attendants are Louise Hickman, Frances Sizemore, Karen Thomas and Linda Lubonia.

WHO MINDS the rain when the Indians are winning? Cheerleaders Kaye Blackburn, Debbie Conley, Barbara Elkins and Gail Kucek don't as they cheer the Indians battling in rain and mud for homecoming victory.

Indians Win Game

The Indians ran wild over the Trap Hill Wildcats, defeating them by a score of 40-14.

Playing in rain and mud, the Indians scored six touchdowns and four extra points.

Greg Daniels and Benny Cook scored two touchdowns each and James Justice and Mike Baldwin tallied once each.

The homecoming win was the fifteenth consecutive football victory in the past two years.

INDIAN BAND comes on field for halftime show.

ATTENDANT Louise Hickman and escort Roger Ford join dancers.

Honors Homecoming Queen

FRANCES Sizemore and Tom Poland step out for Queen's Dance.

DIGNITY prevails as Karen Thomas and Danny Ford join the royalty.

EVERYONE enjoyed the music of the Rondeaus and the floor show at the "Indian Summer" Homecoming dance. Talented youngsters presenting number are Kim Roach, Malinda Cook, Connie Steffey, Cheryl Woods and Medra Murphy.

We'll Long Remember 'Indian Summer'

An Indian Summer moon shone brightly above totem poles and canoes at the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the journalism and music departments.

Highlighting the evening was a floor show featuring a group of Armentrout dancers and the Ocibas who sang "May You Always" as Queen Pat and her court made their entrance.

Guests from other county schools, old grads, patrons, friends of the school and out-of-town visitors joined the lively Oceana crowd to make this the most successful Homecoming Dance ever.

Linda Messer, Deanna Lester, Mike Goins and Jack Goff headed the decoration committees providing the Indian Summer setting.

Undefeated and ranked third in the state, the Indian football team rolled over all opponents to establish Oceana High School as a football power.

This year's team was the first in school history to finish the season undefeated.

The Indians won the Coalfield Conference championship for the first time ever.

The Indians have improved the record of the football team annually since Coach John Beckelheimer came to Oceana four years ago. In '62 the Indians had a 3-7 record; in '63 they were 5-4-1; in '64 they had an 8-2 record; and in '65 were undefeated and untied in ten games.

The Indians are now on a 17-game winning streak that started two years ago. The team has not lost a home game in three years.

Good 18-3 Record

Oceana High's basketball winning tradition was continued by Coach Paul Greer's hard-fighting 1965-66 crew who finished the year with an excellent record of 18-3.

All-stater Benny Cook led the tough defense that knocked such teams as Welch, Logan, and Mullens out of the ratings.

Ranked fourth in the state at the end of the season, the Tribe hit a cold shooting streak in the opening round of the sectional tourney and fell to Mullens, 63-46. The Indians had twice defeated the Mullens team during regular season, and dropped only two games, both by small margins to Williamson of the AAA ranks.

Larry Mathis, Greg Daniels, Tuffy Fleenor, and Randall Topping were the starters. Mickey Lecco, Ted Lively, Larry Cook, Carroll Brown, and Glen Stewart rounded out the squad.

Matmen Improve Record

Meeting the top teams of the area, the Indian wrestling team closed the season with a 4-7 record. Wrestling was added to the sports program three years ago, with Ronald Rose as coach.

Over the three years, the team has improved its record each year and gained in popularity with athletes and spectators.

The team improved steadily as the season advanced and after an earlier loss to Woodrow Wilson High of Beckley, upset the Beckley grapplers, 24-19, in its last match.

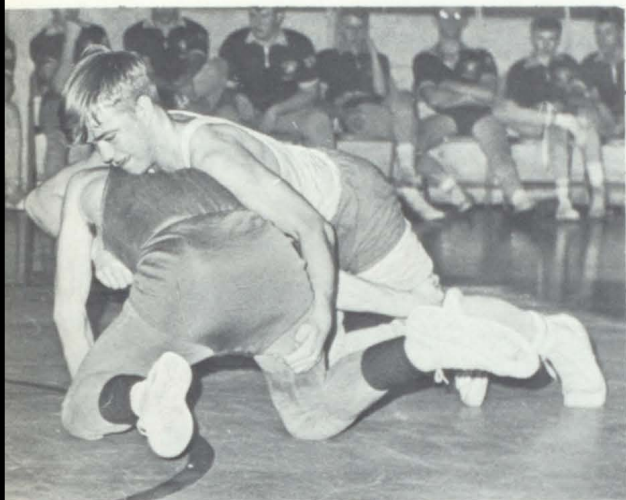

With only two members of the team, Dale Dixon and Dwight Lafferty, graduating, the future looks bright for the wrestlers. Jim Blankenship, a junior who has been named "most outstanding wrestler" for two consecutive years, will return along with David Haynes, Dell Adkins, and Tommy Cook.

CO-CAPTAINS David Haynes, Dell Adkins, and Jimmy Blankenship get a bit of advice from Coach Ronald Rose prior to the Shady Springs match.

DAVID HAYNES prepares to pin his opponent in the Mullens match.

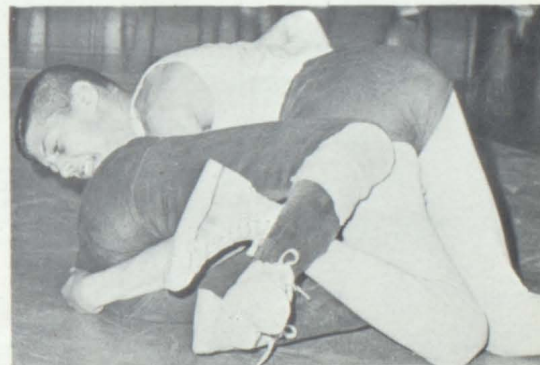

DANNY HARVEY tries a breakdown on his opponent as the Indians nip the Pineville Minutemen.

WHAT GOES ON HERE? Referee Harry Culp hits the mat to find out as Dale Dixon attempts to pin his opponent in a match with Mullens.

FRESHMAN Boyd Prichard goes to work on a Sophia opponent as the Indians tally a 41-9 victory.

Cheer, Cheer for the Indians

LEADING CHEERS for the junior high teams this year were these six freshman girls. Members of the squad were: Karen Darnell, head; Karen Rollins, Peggy Hatfield, Betsy Greer, Peggy Roberts, and Joyce Neal.

ORGANIZATIONS

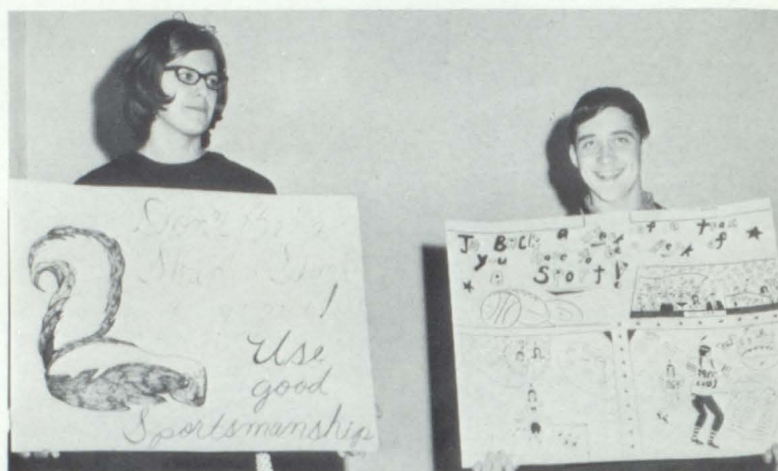

STUDENT COUNCIL president Judy Bailey discusses clean-up campaign with members. Seated are Randall Topping, Jimmy Sizemore, Beecher Plumley, Sandy Nutter, historian; Melba Hurley, and Debbie Conley. Standing are John Toler, treasurer; Mike Baldwin, secretary; Ted Lively, Jimmy Travis, and Joe Bailey, vice president.

Council Emphasizes School Citizenship

Homecoming festivities, a clean-up campaign, improving sportsmanship, and joining in projects of the Wyoming County Association of Student Councils kept council members busy this year.

A sportsmanship assembly, a poster contest, and homeroom inspection kept these objectives before the students.

The council presented scholarship awards to all seniors graduating with averages of B or better. The group is sponsored by Mr. B. L. Morgan.

WINNERS of the student council sportsmanship poster contest were Darice Lester, first place; and Steve Browning, second place.

THESPIANS meet with sponsor to plan Thanksgiving play. Seated are Toni Sauls, Barbara Elkins, and Francis Sizemore. Standing are Judy Bailey, Mike Goins, and Mrs. Barbara Conley.

Club Aids Loan Fund

Oceana Future Journalists led the fund drive of the Raleigh-Wyoming Scholastic Press Association to contribute $100 to the West Virginia University Student Loan Fund.

The money is to be matched by the federal government on a nine-to-one basis and will provide $1,000 to assist needy students.

The chapter was active in RWSPA and was host to the group for the September meeting. Other projects were co-sponsoring the Homecoming Dance and presenting gifts to a needy family at Christmas.

Officers were Linda Messer, president; Karen Snider, vice president; Glenda Grubb secretary; and Steve Browning, treasurer.

REPRESENTING Quill and Scroll and Future journalists, Karen Snider and Linda Messer presented Mrs. Mary K. Bowman, author of Wyoming County's first published history, with a pen for autographing copies of her book at a tea sponsored by the John Cooke Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. At right is Mrs. Virginia Smith, chapter regent.

INITIATED into Quill and Scroll were Melissa Snider, Pam Baldwin, Mike Frazier, and Steve Browning who worked on the school paper.

CAMERON BROWN, Carol Brunty, and Sharon Neal were inducted into the international society.

JOHNNY ROACH '64 was a special guest at the initiation and banquet.

COMMENCEMENT

GIRLS LINE UP before the mirror for a last minute check.

BOYS AWAITING march time read the senior issue of the school paper. In this group are Buddy Paynter, Larry Hood, Tommy Poland, Lucian Brown, and Wavel Powell.

Commencement

MELDA MARSHALL adjusts tie of her brother, Benny. Graduation was of double interest for their family.

UNEXPECTED GIFTS add to the fun of graduation. What can this one be? Sharon Robinson, Margaret Osborne, Judy Fletcher, and Mike Goins admire handsomely wrapped gift.

ACTIVITY begins outside the building as seniors get ready for march.

ANOTHER FALSE ALARM? Isn't it time to get this thing moving?

PROUD SPONSORS Mrs. Maxine Barrett, Mrs. Carol Stewart, and Mr. Robert Knight, get ready to join graduating class. Mrs. Barrett wears orchid presented to her by the seniors as a birthday gift. Also a sponsor was Mr. Jennings Barrett.

IT JUST wouldn't be graduation without Mr. Fred Shannon, Jr., former Oceana teacher, who returned to play the organ for the processional and recessional.

HONOR GUARDS and ushers Betty Ritchie, Ruby Morgan, Joe Bailey, and Ann Lusk welcome guests.

THIS IS IT! It's really time to go.

LED BY Donnie Johnson, the junior honor guard leads the graduating class into the gymnasium.

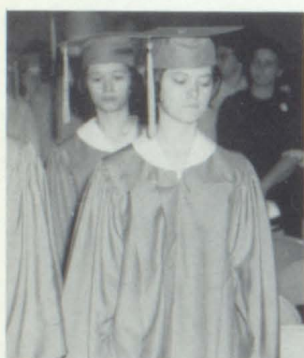

'66

SENIOR CLASS members march to their places while proud families and friends watch.

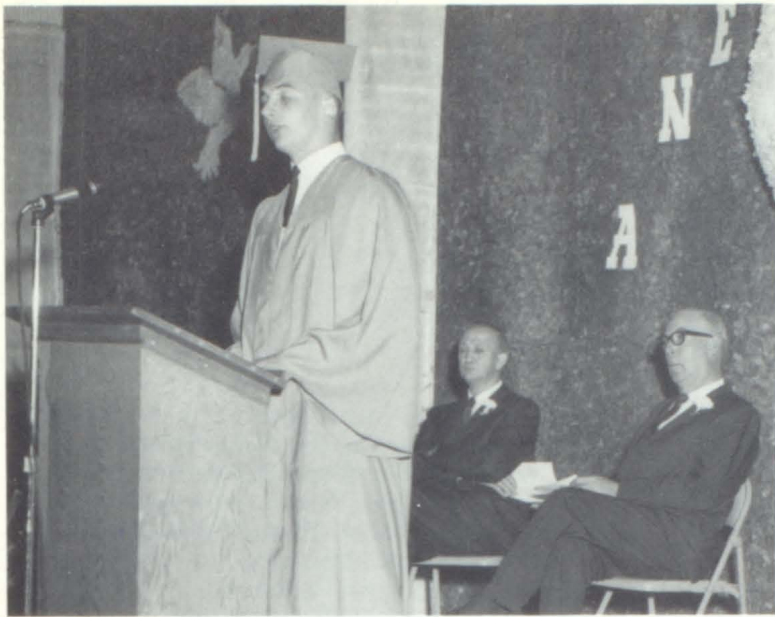

SENIOR MEMBERS join the underclassmen to sing in the Oceana High chorus.

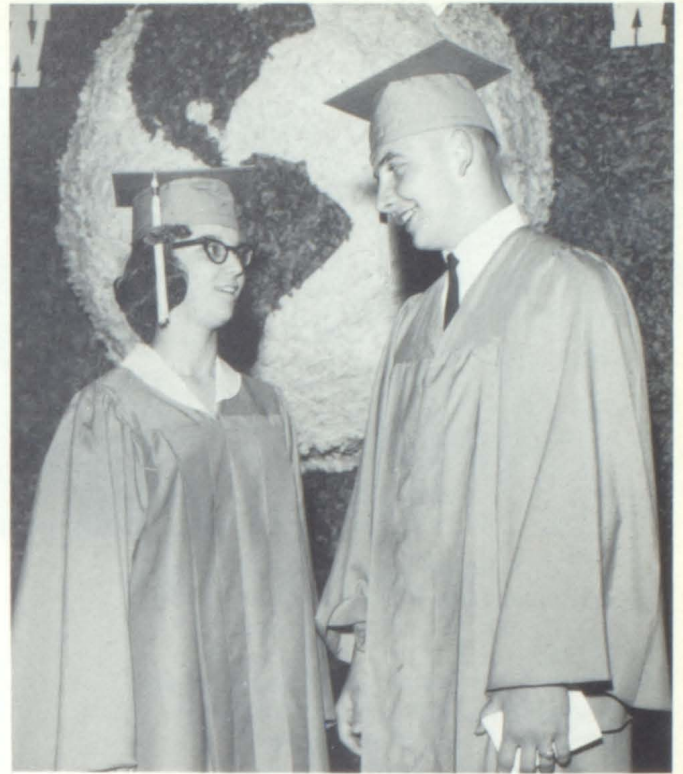

COMMENCEMENT

SALUTATORIAN Greg Daniels begins his welcome. Seated on the stage are the Reverend E. Clyde Bussard, pastor of the Oceana Methodist Church, who assisted with the program, and Mr. Jesse W. Morgan, Wyoming County Schools, who presented diplomas to the Class of '66.

CLASS LEADERS Peggy Cochran, valedictorian, and Greg Daniels, salutatorian, share a happy moment after the ceremonies.

AMERICAN LEGION awards went to Suzanna Tilley and Johnny Toler, outstanding citizens of the class.

Class of '66

For four years, seniors have been a part of the special world of Oceana High. Now they leave this school for "A New World."

May this world be as bright and wonderful as their fondest dreams.
